

Developing a European Ethical Framework for Research on Children

Improvement of Children's Health in the EU
CESP MEDICINES FOR CHILDREN WORKING GROUP

Brussels, Belgium
10 December 2004

Francis P. Crawley
Secretary General & Ethics Officer
European Forum for Good Clinical Practice
&

Member, Ethics Working Group
Confederation of European Specialists in Paediatrics (CESP)
info@efgcp.org www.efgcp.org

Why do we need a European ethical framework for research on children?

Situating Paediatric Clinical Trials

'Maybe me, but not my child!'

Informed consent, ethical review, and other ethical issues in paediatric research need to be appreciated within the national, European, and international ethical & regulatory frameworks for clinical research involving children.

info@efgcp.org www.efgcp.org