

Resources on Vaccine Communications and Addressing Hesitancy for Medical Staff

- UNICEF: Inter-personal Communication for immunization – Training for front line workers <https://www.unicef.org/eca/reports/interpersonal-communication-immunization>
- UNICEF: Training package for home visitors: Protecting young children from vaccine-preventable disease. <https://www.unicef.org/eca/media/14246/file>
- European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control: Enhancing Confidence in Vaccination and Uptake <https://www.ecdc.europa.eu/sites/default/files/media/en/publications/Publications/lets-talk-about-hesitancy-vaccination-guide.pdf>
- WHO: How to respond to vaccine deniers in public: a guide on how to respond to vaccine deniers and other misinformation in public. <https://www.euro.who.int/de/health-topics/disease-prevention/vaccines-andimmunization/publications/2016/best-practice-guidance-how-to-respond-to-vaccine-deniers-in-public-2017>
- WHO: Vaccination and Trust: trust-building activities related to vaccines and immunization <https://www.euro.who.int/en/health-topics/disease-prevention/vaccines-andimmunization/publications/2017/vaccination-and-trust-2017>
- WHO: Vaccine safety messages <https://www.euro.who.int/en/health-topics/disease-prevention/vaccines-andimmunization/publications/2017/vaccine-safety-messages-frequency-of-aefis-2017>
- SKAI and NCIRS: Sharing knowledge about immunization (SKAI) eLearning module <https://learn.nps.org.au/mod/page/view.php?id=11018>